

GOOD TIMES GUIDE

YOU KNOW YOU NEED A DESIGNATED DRIVER IF:

1. This is your 5th trip to the bathroom.
2. You think the city jail serves gourmet meals.
3. You hear "last call" and think the phone is for you.
4. You think a haircut from an ER nurse would look cool.
5. You're singing to the crowd and it isn't Karaoke Night.
6. The person next to you is starting to look "reaalllyy good".
7. Your entire dinner consisted of olives, cherries, and oranges.
8. The bartender knows your favorite drink, but YOU'VE forgotten it.
9. You think embalming fluid will give you a soft and smooth complexion.
10. You enjoy wondering whom you were with and what you're doing here.

BOTTOM LINE: If you're planning to drink ANY amount of alcohol, ALWAYS DESIGNATE A DRIVER BEFORE THE PARTY STARTS.
